

IF EVER THERE WAS A TIME TO VOTE, THE TIME IS NOW.

Voter Guide for Contra Costa County

Save This Guide Until You Vote

Contra Costa County Ballot Measure

VOTE YES - Measure X

Measure X is a half-cent countywide sales tax ballot measure that benefits Contra Costa County much needed public health care, social services for children, adults and seniors, and firefighting services.

Richmond Ballot Measures

VOTE YES - Measure U

This initiative is a progressive gross receipts tax in Richmond. It will make big businesses pay their fair share, reduce taxes on small businesses, help create jobs and protect essential services.

US President

Vice President

US Representatives

State Senate

State Assembly

Joe Biden

Kamala Harris

District 11:
Mark DeSaulnier

District 9:
Nancy Skinner

District 15:
Buffy Wicks

District 16:
Rebecca Bauer-Kahan

Board of Supervisors

Richmond City Council

El Cerrito City Council

District 5:
Federal Glover

District 1:
Melvin Willis

District 5:
Gayle McLaughlin

District 6:
Claudia Jimenez

Tessa Rudnick

Paul Fadelli

Lisa Motoyama

Concord City Council

Antioch City Council

BART Board of Directors

Statewide Ballot Measures

District 2:
Hope Johnson

District 1:
Tamisha Walker

District 1:
Jamie Salcido

District 7:
Lateefah Simon

Alameda - Contra Costa Transit Board

Pittsburg Unified School District Board

Ambrose Park District

Ward 1:
Jovanka Beckles

Heliodoro Moreno

Taylor Sims

Eduardo Torres

Prop 15: Schools and Communities First

VOTE

YES

Prop 16: Opportunity for All

YES

Prop 17: Restore Voting Rights for Parolees

YES

Prop 18: Expanding Access to Voting for Young People

YES

Prop 20: Repealing Criminal Justice Reform

NO

Prop 21: Rent Control

YES

Prop 22: Eliminating Protection for App-Based Workers

NO

Prop 23: Protecting Dialysis Patients

YES

Prop 25: Ending Money Bail

YES

For these local recommendations, SEIU 1021 members on our Committee On Political Education hosted interviews with candidates, and examined local measures.